

I am writing to express my concern on the effect further deregulation will have on the broadcast industry. I live near the Los Angeles area and find it incredibly frustrating that I cannot find diversity on the radio waves. There is very little local programming, and almost nothing that isn't "canned" by a big corporation. I believe further deregulation would only worsen this. Thank you.